BESC ON AN UNPRECEDENTED WINNING SPREE

It all started with Goonj - the St. Xavier's College Cultural Fest. Umang - the Home Fest of BESC (also the biggest of its kind in this side of the Cantilever). Umang, it will not be out of place to mention here, comprised of a whopping forty-nine events in which one thousand plus participants from fifty-one colleges had taken part. When the dust settled after the three-day extravaganza was complete, BESC students had emerged top guns in most of events, with an almost unachievable strike rate, even by T-20 standards.

The BESC bandwagon then ran virtually unopposed through:

Inter-College Fests	Organised by	Position
GOONJ'17	St. Xaviers' College	WINNER
INVICTUS	J D Birla College	RUNNERS-UP
XAVOTSAV	St. Xaviers' College	WINNER
MANAGEDIA	iLEAD	WINNER
UMANG	The Bhawanipur Education Society College	WINNER
COMMUNIQUE'	The Bhawanipur Education Society College	WINNER
SRIJAN	Shri Shikshayatan College	WINNER
VERVE	J D Birla College	WINNER
MILIEU	Presidency College	WINNER
CARPE DIEM	IIM (Kolkata)	SECOND RUNNER UP

What is the secret behind this bull run on the BESC counter? "Solid Fundamentals" says Miraj D Shah, the Vice Chairman of the College. "The management's philosophy of enabling the students to work on their inherent strengths, as opposed to merely cramming them with dollops of academics is what is leading to the stunning achievements that you see".

But to put things in the right perspective, the main reason behind the unparalleled achievements of the BESC students (and yes, it also includes academic excellence, but this is not the place for those paeans) is the fact that their practise is not fest oriented. Even as I write this piece, some students are busy rehearsing their next street play, while the dance team and rock band are going through the motions. There is a debate on in one of the auditoriums, while in another, a futurist is making a presentation about the Fourth Industrial Revolution. And all this, while the regular classes continue unabated.

What the students of the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) have achieved this year in the College Fests Circuit is no less a feat than the Vedic ritual of yore. For, the year has witnessed a runaway string of achievements in which BESC students have captured one College Fest crown after the other, walking confidently to the top of the pile - proving their mettle, winning friends and influencing people!

BESC: The unending quest for excellence

REPORT ON THE C.U. KABADDI TEAM SELECTION
(BOYS & GIRLS) 2018 – 19

Kabaddi is a contact team sport. Played between two teams of seven players, the object of the game is for a single player on offence, referred to as a "raider", to run into the opposing team's half of a court, tag out as many of their defenders as possible, and return to their own half of the court, all without being tackled by the defenders, and in a single breath. Points are scored for each player tagged by the raider, while the opposing team earns a point for stopping the raider. Players are taken out of the game if they are tagged or tackled, but can be "revived" for each point scored by their team from a tag or tackle.

The exact origins of Kabaddi are disputed, with theories suggesting that Kabaddi originated from either the Vedic Period of Indian history, or the Sistan region of present-day Iran. The game was said to have been popular among the Yadav people, an abhang by Tukaram stated that the god Krishna played the game in his youth, while the Mahabharata contains an account of Arjun similarly being able to sneak into hostile areas and take out enemies unscathed. There are also accounts of Gautam Buddha having played the game recreationally. Despite these conflicting claims, India has been credited with having helped to popularize Kabaddi as a competitive sport, with the first organized competitions occurring in the 1920's, their introduction to the programme of the Indian Olympic Games in 1938, the establishment of the All-India Kabaddi Federation in 1950, and being played as a demonstration sport at the inaugural 1951 Asian Games in New Delhi. These developments helped to formalize the

Inter-College Fest Participation:

IIHM Fest

IIHM Campus, November 22nd – 24th, 2018

BESC took part in the IIHM fest, and as usual, won the hearts of the crowd. The overall winner's trophy going to BESC, was a foregone conclusion! Volleyball, face painting, football, debate, badminton – all the usual events were held with participants from BESC maxing out in most of them.

The two events that not only swayed the crowds but were real nail-biters were the fashion show and the dance battle. Hatim Rangawala and Sakchi Murarka were the moving spirits behind the fashion do and though they lost out in the final leg, it was more of an anti-climax than a let-down – their inventiveness and sheer virtuosity were acknowledged by the judges and the crowd alike.

The Dance battle – and what a battle it was – had judges calling for a repeat performance by the two contenders for the top slot as both were equally good. Finally, the BESC team edged past to the podium, a first among equals.

Do the BRIO Bro

ISB Kolkata, 27th to 29th November, 2018

The IBS fest was literally a rollercoaster for us, as at times we were where we belong – at the top, while at others, we were “forced” down, only to fight our way back. In the end, we did win the Best College Trophy as was expected, but that does not mean that the competition was not stiff, or that the stakes were not weighed heavily against us.

As is now the norm in the college fests circuit, the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) won the top honours in the Fashion Section (Ramp it up) with Komal Choudhary and her team setting the ramp on fire. T Rupani pinged and ponged her way to the top in table tennis. Carrom, Singing, Art-athon – the prizes that BESC students won, are too many to list individually.

The highlight was the BESC “non-gas cooking” contingent who laid out a sumptuous spread that was enjoyed (and acclaimed) by the participants and the judges alike.

BESC lifts the Spardha 2018

Ashutosh College, December 3rd-5th, 2018

Creative Writing, Tattoo Art, Quiz, Nail Art, Beg Borrow or Steal ... the list of events where students of the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) emerged victorious was endless, as was perhaps expected. The fact that BESC lifted the Champion's trophy too was on expected lines. The fest will be remembered by all participants for a different reason though – something that not only underscores the - competitive spirit of BESC, but also the battle readiness of BE-ites.

Krupa Bakhai, who had gone to cheer up the BESC participants was called in the fill the void created by one of the contestants due to unavoidable circumstances. There was no time for practice, leave alone that of donning the right costume or applying makeup. Yet, undaunted she took the stage, dressed in the casual attire she was in and went on to receive the prize for the runners up. The final was one of those cases, where even in defeat, the vanquished wins the hearts and a standing ovation.

A cash prize of Rupees Ten thousand was also won by the Team BESC.

Spardha – the afterparty

Concept Hall, December 25th, 2018

Picking up the Champion's Trophy at college fests, even saying things in all humility, is no big deal for the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC). As a matter of fact, such has been the bottomless pool of talents at the BESC and so charged have successive batches of students been, that the college taking the bow as the winner is more of a rule than an exception.

Naturally, BESC lifting the trophy of overall champions at the Ashutosh College fest – Spardha, was no shocker, either in the college fests circuit, or in the BESC campus. What was remarkable, however, was the spirit that was put on display by the BE-ites. Apart from their raging passion for victory which matched their spirit of participation, mention must be made for their consistent adherence to norms of fair play, which was appreciated and was specially mentioned by the judges.

The feat called for a celebration and BESC, as always, did not compromise in the arrangements to pay tribute to the triumphant. There was DJ music – with chartbusters being belted out with such ferocity that even the best of dancers slumped exhausted. Not that it made any difference, for the energy that was drained out by the dancing, was regained in full measure by the food that followed. That the dinner that was spread was sumptuous, goes without saying.

Champaklal A Doshi, the Chairman of BESC officially declared Umang Open after the lighting of the ceremonial lamp. Dr Suman Mukherjee, Director General; Dr SuchandraChakravarty, Teacher-in-Charge and Prof Dilip Shah, Dean of Student Affairs of the institution spoke on the occasion. Dr Lal Bhatia, author of "Indicting Goliath" also addressed the gathering. The high point of the opening ceremony was the college magician RanadityaSengupta with his tricks and the unveiling of an original piece by the Late M F Hussain which was displayed on stage.

Spread over 4 days – about 100 hours of sheer passion, the preparations for the event had started a good three months back with the formation of committees, assignment of duties and the recognition of leaders to ensure that the respective battalions are combat ready.

However, there was no inch given without a fight as far as the competitions went. The contests were fierce with contingents of cheer leaders shouting for their respective teams. The fact that most of the colleges put up commendable performances was another high point of Umang which has traditionally been known to bring out the best in all those who participate, naturally making the jobs of the judges just that much more difficult.

January 18th, 2019. Main Stage. Amit Trivedi is the kind of "Emosional Atyachar" that every-one likes to be subjected to, albeit musically. Naturally, when Amit Trivedi is billed to perform at Umang, it is a sell-out and a ten thousand strong crowd waits to greet him with bated breath.

The anchors for the show, NavneetDugar and Anurag Dhanania keep the crowd on the edge as the time ticks by for the star of the evening to make his grand appearance. He does and the show begins.

One chartbuster after the other. Amit Trivedi makes the crowd eat from his hand, mesmerised youngsters hanging on to the hugely popular tunes that are his trademark.

And when the chart-topper declared that he has never seen such an enthusiastic crowd before, there was naturally no stopping. The foot tapping combustion was spontaneous, and the dancing frenzied to put things mildly.

Even as the music played on, the Champions were called on stage to be felicitated.

BESC emerged the overall Champions and being the host, was gracious enough to pass the Champion's trophy to St. Xavier's College, Calcutta who had taken the position of the runners up. Amity University, Kolkata took the bronze.

Surendranath College was adjudged the most disciplined college.

Yash from IIHM won the crown for the Bust CR (male) while AnandRewat of Goenka College was selected as the Best CR (female)

Suhel Johan of BESC was declared the Star of Umang (male) while for the Star of Umang (Female) there was a tie between Puja Jalan and Mandira Gupta (both from BESC).

Umang Nostalgia could not have dropped the curtains with more style – bringing to close the officially four-day long revelry. However, as the contestants and the volunteers and everybody associated with the event will vouch, it was a lot more than a mere four-day long affair for the preparations had begun months in advance. It is also technically wrong to say that Umang reached its grand finale – for like Life, Umang too is perennial, eternal even.

IIM Calcutta – Carpe Diem

IIM Joka, January 18th – 20th, 2019

Carpe Diem is the annual cultural fest of IIM Calcutta. It has grown tremendously over the years to become one of the most anticipated college fests of the city and being the first in the calendar, naturally holds a special attraction. Besides, as management institutions go, the IIM C has a place of its own which is also reflected in the quality of participation, the thought that goes behind the planning and the execution of the different events and the overall look and feel of the fest.

The BESC team which participated in Carpe Diem, literally "seized the day" by participating in seven of the top-billed events of the fest – Street play, Mimicry, Raagmala, Solo Dance (2), PubG and Fashion Show. BESC's domination of the fest can be gauged from the fact that out of the seven events participated in, BE-ites took the top slot straight in five events.

The BESC team added to its tally by ranking second in mimicry apart from winning the Best Designer slot and that of the Best Male Model in the fashion show category, taking the medals tally to an impressive level.

Not a bad way to start the new calendar year – by being right at the top!

5.3.2 Average number of sports and cultural programs in which students of the Institution participated during 2018-19 (organised by the institution/other institutions)

THE BHAWANIPUR EDUCATION SOCIETY COLLEGE

Srijan 2019 was strung around the theme Marvel Super Heroes and in keeping with it, some of the performances were indeed heroic, while some others reached standards that were simply beyond the physical abilities of the ordinary mortals. The two days witnessed some of the city's best talents winning hearts and influencing people even as they went about adding to the medal tallies for their respective colleges.

In the sports section the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) participated in five events in which it struck gold in three – Basketball (Boys and Girls) and Tug of War (boys). BESC took the silver in Tug of War for girls while in Throw Ball for boys it took the bronze. Five medals in five events participated – not bad by any stretches of the imagination.

In the cultural events that followed, the contingent from BESC was equally prolific. BESC won the top slots for Street Play, Nongas cooking, Ads spoof, Solo singing, Fusion Dance and Antakshari.

Participants from the BESC were adjudged second best in Live Reporting, Spell Bee, Jam & Verteez, Stress Interview and Solo battle dance.

In Nail Art, Debate, Logo designing and Marketing the BESC students were placed third winning the bronze medals.

The haul of medals was impressive to put things mildly and as is now the norm, the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) emerged as the overall champions of Srijan 2019. The college contingent was also adjudged the Best College, which added another feather in the cap.

Theatre Festival

College Campus, 1st to 3rd March, 2019

Shiladitya Roy, an avid theatre buff, unveiled the third edition of the BESC Theatre Festival in which more than twenty colleges participated. Live actors, presenting their take on an event live or imaginary, before a live audience, that too in real time is no easy feat to accomplish, pointed out the anchor, especially with competitors and judges evaluating even the soft nuances of the acting, the voice modulation, the body language and the dialogue delivery of the actors.

The judges and all the participants were then invited on stage as each was handed a sapling to be planted in a symbolic pot that represented the basic idea that everything is possible with common effort. Prof Shah also made it a point to put on record his sincere appreciation of theatre personality and alumnus of the BESC - Argho Banerjee who was not only a member of the core team that had started the theatre movement in the BESC and was instrumental behind the 1st Theatre Festival but has also worked with unbridled enthusiasm for every festival since then, including the current one.

The various events at the Theatre Festival included; Ad-spoof (Vigyapan), Boardroom Drama (Anjaan), Short Film Making (Chalachitra), Street Play, Improvised Acting (Achanak), Stage Play (Rang Manch), Mono Acting (Akela), Jaati He Pucho Sadhu Ki play was staged by the Enact collective as a tribute to all the performers from the different colleges who had congregated to take part in the BESC Theatre Festival.

Extremely well scripted, well directed and well played, the presentation had the tell-tale marks of a BESC production and was very well appreciated by the audience.

On 3rd March Bollywood stars Barun Sobti, Prachi Bora, Amartya Roy, Ranjit Kaput, Chaiti Ghoshal, Rajesh Sharma and Geeta Tyagi - the entire caste of the film 22 Yards graced the BESC Theatre Festival with their presence. The film they were promoting too was something that was very close to most of the students - cricket as it spun the yarn of a fallen cricket agent and a young cricketer, the story of perseverance and ultimate triumph, a sweet tale of success against the odds.

The cast of the film played a friendly cricket match with the BESC team in the turf and not only were the Bollywood stars bowled over by the BESC cricketers, many were even hit for a six.

Prachin Pandey of BESC and Samantha Mishra of THK Jain College were handed over the trophies for Best Actors of the Theatre Festival by Barun Sobti. He also handed over the Overall Champion's trophy to the joint winners of the 3rd BESC Theatre Festival to THK Jain College and the BESC.

A small quiz was also conducted for the audience to participate in, where the winners were given a replica cricket bat signed by the cast of the movie 22 yards. The high point of the programme was a song sung by Amartya Roy from one of the films acted in by him.

March 3rd, 2019. New Concept Hall. A mono act play brought to life by Nilanjana Bala and directed by Oonja Bhuyan "Anubhav" was staged.

Oonja Bhuyan is one of the most celebrated dramatis personae - teaching drama for close to a decade now - her forte being the direction of children's plays. She is also an accomplished set designer, music director and lighting expert.

The play was stitched around the complex relationship between man and woman. The trials and tribulations that relationships are exposed to, the choices that are often difficult to make and the future that looks grim to put things mildly. Yet, the act was also about hope, about triumph, of the soul, of honest intentions that are capable of painting every cloud with a silver lighting.

The narrative was stark in its simplicity, the direction, bereft of unnecessary accouterments and the execution as near perfect as it gets. The crowd sat enthralled as the story unfolded, pitting the mirror in front of the audience as it were, forcing them to face questions that we are often too scared to confront.

Digambarin

March 3rd, 2019. New Concept Hall. Janardan Ghosh is a living legend in theatre, presented with his troupe dealt with the concept of duality - Shakti and Shiva. That the audience sat spellbound through a play of such heavy spiritual purport, requiring an intellectual involvement of the highest kind was a vindication of the heights attained by the protagonist in his chosen field of excellence.

Like all good things, the curtains had to come down on the Theatre Festival as well and it did, but not before a final applause. The judges proceeded to honour the winners with certificates and trophies.

The overall winners trophy for the festival was shared jointly by the JHK Jain College and the BESC.

Verve

March 14th - 16th, 2019. VidyaMandir, Spring Club, JD BI (Main Campus).

The JD Birla Institute Fest, Verve, is one of the major events in the city's College fests circuit and is known for the sheer energy and inventiveness of the students who leave no stones unturned to ensure the success of their fest. The fact that competition is stiff with representatives of all the participating colleges going hammer and tongs also needs no elaboration.

Students participating in the Inter-College festival Verve

The BESC team that participated in the fest, was naturally one of the bigger ones, though due to various logistical issues that had to be addressed ensured that the college could not participate in full force.

As many as twenty-nine events were participated in out of which positions were secured in seventeen. BESC also won the "Best Representative Award" and the "Best College Award" to complete its tally.

Giving creativity a boost @ an Inter-College Festival. The BESC continues to be the most dominating force in the circuit

INTER-COLLEGE EVENTS 2019-2020

Communique 2019

Jubilee Hall. July 31, 2019.

The Communique is BESC's tribute to the word – written, spoken and even imagined. It is one of its kind in the college fests circuit and is kind of a harbinger for things to come. A harbinger because it is organised right near the beginning of the new academic session with freshers eager to get into the groove as it were and mostly sets the high-water mark that the events that follow seek to live up to. That the Communique is a Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) offering makes it stand apart in the campus pecking order even more, which perhaps needs no reiteration.

This year too, the Communique was no different as many as 80 representatives from nine colleges participated in the event, competing with each other to summit and plant their college colours. In all, there were 10 individual and group events.

Prof Dilip Shah, the Dean of Student Affairs of the BESC set the ball rolling when he welcomed all the participants to the college and recounted how the event was conceived by him as he was having a cup of coffee, many summers ago.

During the course of the day as many as 10 events were organised. Pranab Mukherjee, visiting faculty, who has been a regular feature in Communiques past, was there with his speeches that were spellbinding. Prof Minakshi Chaturvedi, Prof Urvi Shukla and Chawm Ganguly – experts in their respective fields, judged the different events, often cajoling the students to surpass themselves with invaluable insights.

The Debate, Jam & Vertez, Live Reporting, Spell Zell, Essay Writing – are all big draws of the Communique – not only did they witness spirited participation but were also taken to greater heights by the judges who ensured that their passion and enthusiasm rub on to the participants whose takeaway from the events were much greater than the accolades they won.

In the end the team BESC triumphed as the overall champions.

Nexus 2019

Jubilee Hall. August 29 & 30, 2019.

Nexus literally is a form of connection, the centre of something. In management parlance, it is often used to mean a connected group. Little wonder then that The Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) would christen its management fest the Nexus.

The unveiling of Nexus 2019 with Prof Dilip Shah in the very centre of things

A total of twelve college teams participated and fought pitched battles for the top slots in the events spread over two days. The size and depth of the event can be gauged from the simple fact that the college witnessed the footfall of more than three hundred students during the event.

The team Nexus 2019

Prof Dilip Shah, the Dean of student affairs of the BESC welcomed the participants to the college and spelt out his unique vision which is being given shape in the BESC – of empowering the students so that they may rise above the restriction of the curriculum and prepare for life that awaits them on the other side of college education.

The First event of Nexus, Be the Spotlight, was about presenting a viable business idea within a stipulated time period.

The event was judged by Nemaï Ghosh, the head of start-ups portfolio of IIM (Calcutta) Incubation park. He manages the incubation and other student activities. A seasoned academician who is equally at ease in the corporate world, Nemaï Ghosh has close to two decades of experience in the IT and ITES sector.

Be the Spotlight winner's title was clinched by the BESC (Team B) followed by iLead and St Xavier's University.

Unconventional Marketing is exactly what the name suggests where participating students are given a random product which they are expected to sell without taking resort to the time tested and cliched methods. Those with the most innovative way of explaining the USP of the product as well as the way they go about the sales pitch are judged the winners.

Gaurav Bajoria owner of the Black Tiger Events judged the event which was witnessed by a crowd of fifty students whose excitement and the level of participation had to be seen to be believed.

Business Quiz is one of the most watched events in any campus business fest and the Nexus was no different. The event witnessed record participation with all the colleges participating in Nexus fielding teams. The crowd participation too was phenomenal with about a hundred students thronging in the crowd and cheering their respective college teams.

The event, judged by CS Aerica Sardar was a lively one and was spread over multiple rounds that included straight questions, buzzer rounds, rounds with visual and auditory clues apart from one that was exclusively dedicated to taglines.

A Turn Coat is one who switches sides when political expediency so commands, the term is used mostly in the pejorative sense, paints a turncoat as a derided, even despicable character, one whose loyalties can be purchased for a “few dollars more”.

The Final Hurdle is a stress interview in which the participants are exposed to the very worst – in terms of the questions asked and the people asking them –with those that are able to maintain their calm and exhibit a presence of mind, not to mention a personality that is pleasing to boot, emerge victorious.

Corporate Chanakya is another popular game that is aimed at bringing out the creativity that is backed by solid knowledge of the fundamentals in the participating students. The rules are simple enough on the face of it, what is unbearably difficult however, is to crack the jinx and court success. Participating students are provided with a product for which they have to prepare a promotional advertisement / poster with a view towards effectively selling the product to the world at large. Marketing, Advertising, Branding ... it straddles multiple disciplines and is aimed at bringing out the best, for it is not always as easy to sell an unknown product to a sceptical public (read even more sceptical judge).

Personality Enhancer is another interesting staple at the College Fests circuit and the event in Nexus was no different with around a hundred and fifty students filling up the spaces reserved for spectators even as participants from six different colleges fought it out for the honours.

Suit Squad was a fashion show with a difference. In keeping with the corporate orientation of Nexus, each participating college team was asked to walk the ramp in a team of ten members in a six plus two minute format. The attire was to be strictly formal and the idea was to adjudge the team that is best dressed to occupy the corner room apart from having the chutzpah to set the ramp of the corporate world on fire.

BESC Assembly of Nations

BESC Campus. September 5 to 8, 2019.

It's that time of the year where history witnesses the congregation of intellectuals putting their best foot forward where the heightened level of diplomacy is brought out to resolve the conflicting issues of the present times in order to rise and evolve.

The event was uncovered by the a declamation by Tenzin Tsunde, an activist and an acknowledged writer, who vehemently expressed his feelings regarding the invisibility of Tibetan culture as a state and the atrocities faced by the indigenous population under the captivity of Chinese sub-continent. Further, the event progressed with an emphatic attempt by Shibani Mishra, the speaker for PETA, portraying the necessitous condition of street dogs and suggesting the changes we must make for the relative betterment.

Amidst the encore, the Secretariat of BESC AON'19

Keynote Speaker Tenzin Tsunde addressing the BESC Assembly of Nations 2019

A tense moment of diplomatic discussions at the BESC AON was released and several collaborations were made with institutions such as Amnesty International, Smile Foundation, Cry Foundation, RUMUN etcetera aimed at for providing the best quality of conference on a large scale.

Day1 brought with itself an exuberant mass of crowd gathered for the opening ceremony, a few nervous faces and some rather excited on the other hand.

Day2 progressed into a battleground with the level of competition rising therefore allowing a certain development in the discussion that would primarily be the deciding factor in the distribution of awards. At the end of Day 2, the smile on the face of everyone led their way into the socials that took place in Jubilee Hall, followed by DJ night.

Day 3 held prime importance being the juncture for all the debate and deliberation to take shape in the final run that would conclude the hard work of the delegates into something more concrete which will decide the fate of delegates for everything they've put at stake, the outcome being disclosed in the closing ceremony.

As famously quoted, an end signals a new beginning.

AON'19 therefore came to an end but was now the beginning of new memories, friendships, learning and understanding. Amidst the happiness and the cheers of audience, we could hear Vaibhav Sethia making the atmosphere more exuberant and warmer with his insistent rounds of jokes.

Overall, the success could be measured in the smiles of our audience and their expectations being met in three days where innumerable amount of learning and camaraderie was shared.

Euphonious 2019

Jubilee Hall. September 27, 2019

Euphonious is sound that is pleasing to the ears, music that opens the door to the soul. For the college going crowd to Kolkata and its suburbs, the very name Euphonious is now like music to the ears as this music fest has already carved out a distinct niche in their hearts. For the students of the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) too, Euphonious is sweet music though for reasons slightly different – for one, it is another fest that the students organise themselves from concept to communication, secondly because Euphonious provides them with an unique and time-tested platform to showcase their talents and finally because, winners that they habitually are, these musically inclined talented lot of BESC look forward to lift the trophy that is in any case their own.

eastern, solo western, solo Bollywood, solo instrumental, solo rapping and solo beat boxing. In the second Group were ranged Eastern, Western, Bollywood Folk and Unconventional Orchestra.

The list of Judges who presided over the respective events and selected the winners was as impressive as the extremely high quality of the performances.

The Judges line-up was, to put things mildly, awesome and that the performers held on to their acts in front of the thriving audience and such a star-studded judge cast was in itself laudatory:

Avishek Natta – one of Kolkata's up and coming vocalists who is also an accomplished guitarist and music composer; Srijita Mitra – veteran jingle singer, Zee Bangla Sa Re Ga Ma performer and a perennial favourite with Tollywood and Reality shows; Dil fake X Captain Singh-a – Kolkata's biggest hip hop duo who have individually and as a duo mesmerised audiences everywhere from Red Bull Spotlight to MTV Hustle, apart from having a dedicated fan following in the digital media where they have released a number of individual tracks; Fuchii – with three tracks booming in Youtube and having worked in all the hip nightspots in town, Valentino needs no introduction to the connoisseurs; Brata Deb – a composer, writer and singer of the Latino-Funk genre, he has not only worked with some of the biggest names in the world of music but has also been associated with a number of hit movies; Arkapravo Ghosh – the guitarist of swell bands like Orient Express and Colour Bridge, this astrophysicist and professor needs no introduction either as a vocalist or as a guitar virtuoso. His genre is Latin and Jazz; Kaustav Banerjee – a “throw-up” from the school / college music scene, he was the quintessential “rock-er” of “Rockbaaj” who could not be tamed as he gave up a tempting job in Bangalore to return to take on the stage.

Corporate India's loss has certainly been music's gain. His new band is called Grooverz, which is, shall we say, Groovy!

BESC emerged as the overall champions, leaving the other participating institutions, even collectively, way behind.

college dance and music festival, did not rob BESC of the glory of the emerging overall champions as not only were our participants lauded for the extremely high quality of performances, but we also won the hearts of the audience and the applause for fair play – no mean achievement that.

We set the stage on fire in Bollywood Dance for example and the organisers were on the verge of calling the fire brigade.

Therefore, it is no surprise as the undisputed and

The NSHM fest was no exception. A BESC contingent of 34 ace performers took part in the fest and when the medals were counted, they had, naturally triumphed with one top slot (one minute to fame); four second slots (Antakshari, Street Play, Solo Singing and Fashion Show) and one bronze (Quiz).

The intense competition that had marked the day as contestants from different colleges had vied for the top slots melted into a pot called the BESC as new friendships were forged and old ties renewed.

Spardha 2019

The Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC) was, perhaps as usual, the big-ticket guest of the fest as students from the host and other participating colleges looked forward to witnessing their performances and to compete, so as to closely watch, even learn a thing or two from the Spartans of the college fests circuit.

A team of twenty-six students participated in Spardha and to put things in the right perspective, twenty-one won medals, which is a strike rate of an astonishing eighty-one percent!

The BESC entry that dared them all ... at Spardha

The fest was marked by extremely cordial atmosphere where the visiting students were made to feel at home – and thanks to the super hospitable students of the college. The level of competition though was very high, with neither an inch conceded or taken. In terms of the number of colleges participating too, the fest was a success. However, what really set it apart was the transparent and completely fair manner in which the individual events were conducted and judged. In the end, Spardha was a hit, more than anything else, because it dared – dared to live up to the values that the great man whose name the college shares. It is a BESC privilege to applaud the achievement!

number of events that are held, but also in terms of the sheer competitiveness that is generally witnessed in them. Being hospitality professionals in the making, the IIHM students are extremely good and courteous hosts, the smile never leaving their lips, though when it comes to an uncompromising desire to win, they are perhaps some of the most cut-throat of competitors. Naturally, the Bhawanipur Education Society College (BESC), the undisputed king of the college fests, well aware of the challenges involved, did not want to take things for granted and a contingent of sixty-eight – comprising of crack performers were dispatched to plant the BESC banner in the IIHM campus.

Every child looks forward to the leisure hour - When will he carry his bats outside, someone will get the ball, others will get wickets. When the ball is thrown, the child hits a Six! But, Oh No! He breaks the windowpane of a grumpy neighbour and how everyone scatters away with their belongings to escape the scolding. In times of IPL, as KKR rolls down Rajasthan's wicket, the lane echoes with HOWZZAT! Such stories prevail throughout the country. For us Indians,

Celebrating Kazi Nazrul Islam

The English Department of The Bhawanipur Education Society College arranged an online event to commemorate the birth anniversary of Kazi Nazrul Islam on 13th June, 2020. In the hour-long event, students from the English Department paid tribute to the great poet through music, dance and recitation.

His avant-garde music and fiery poetry have earned him the epithet of 'Vidrohikabi' or 'rebel poet'. Nazrul was aware of the endless potential of youth. Therefore, it is always relevant to allow young minds a degree of exposure to his work, so that they may emerge rejuvenated with strength and enterprise from the encounter. Nazrul has taught posterity that no obstacle is paramount, and therefore,

On 26th May, 2021, the Department of English of The Bhawanipur Education Society College organized Life beyond Life: A Tribute to Rabindranath Tagore to commemorate his 160th birth anniversary. In light of the unprecedented number of deaths as a consequence of the ongoing second wave of the Covid-19 pandemic, the department had decided to organize a cultural tribute to Tagore which would be relevant to the dark times we live in. It was the department's intention to be in solidarity with everyone in the world who had lost loved ones, and were struggling to survive. Since Tagore's literary works find resonance with perhaps the entire gamut of human emotions, this event would be an appropriate means to the end mentioned above. The inaugural address was delivered by Dr. Suchandra Chakravarty. This was followed by two segments where students paid their tribute to Tagore through music, dance and recitation, all in keeping with the themes of the joys and pains of human existence, life, death and the hope for new life.

An entire presentation was devoted to various works of art prepared by graduate and postgraduate students of the department. The event drew to an end with a skit by Tagore which was intended for comic relief. It was enacted by PG semester II and UG semester VI students. A few alumni of the department had participated in the event as well. The event was moderated by Mr. Soumyajit Chandra. Through its celebration of Tagore, the event underscored the idea of human bonds, and brought a refreshing light of hope and solace.

Yoga for Wellbeing

On 22nd June 2021, at 1.30 P.M (IST) the International Yoga Day was observed by the students of Semester II, Department of Education, The Bhawanipur Education Society College. The digital platform for the program was Google Meet. The day was celebrated with great fervor and enthusiasm. The entire program was crafted under the initiative of Ayushi Bhattacharya (English Department); Aiman Hashim (English Department); Sanjana Barai (Sociology Department). This year the theme was “Yoga for Wellbeing “.The health and fitness program commended with the understanding of the initiation of the International Yoga Day through the efforts of our Honorable Prime Minister Narendra Modi followed by a talk on yoga and its impact on mental health during this pandemic. The day was observed upholding our spiritualistic tendencies towards a better self. To create an awareness and reinforcement drive a short program was therefore organized wherein it was important to understand the essence of “Yog” and “Yoga” not just for physical health but also for mental health because the COVID- 19 wave has exacerbated existing mental health inequalities. The knowledge of Yoga during these tough times provided a sense of peace and calmness and its contribution during the lockdown cannot be dwarfed. Yoga and asanas have therefore taken a center stage during this pandemic as stress relievers. Food is also an essential part of health, the kind of meal taken and the Sattvic diet no doubt forms an integral part of Yoga. It was followed by a small Yoga awareness song glorifying the ideals of Yoga and its essence in its birth place India and finally the program was concluded by the melodious voice of Dr. Rekha Nariwal, Head, Department of Education, The Bhawanipur Education Society College, who with her Ghazal touched our souls and finally concluding remarks was given by Ms. Madhuja Biswas, Lecturer, Department of Education, The Bhawanipur Education Society College.

In this digital era when things are more on online mode and fast forward, let us give ourselves some time and take a step towards better health, a better life and ultimately a better mind. A holistic approach to health and well-being is to be sought in our educational institutions as well. Yoga is therefore not just doing physical exercises but inculcating a sense of oneness with the world and the nature. It is quintessential therefore to maintain our equilibrium and head towards acquiring better life skills by making Yoga an integral part of our lives.
